PORTSMOUTH DOCK. A SERIOUS FIRE.

[Reuter's Service To The "Telegraph."]
London, Received December 22.
A fire which broke out at Portsmouth Dockyard last (Sunday) evening destroyed the remphore tower, and a number of documents dating back to the time of Nelson were burned.

The mill loft and rigging house were destroyed. Bluejackets and soldiers worked their hardest to extinguish the flames, which rose a hundred feet high and illuminated the whole harbour.

The new battle-cruiser Queen Mary, which was moored at the jetty, was jeopardised, embers falling on her decks. She was, however, towed out of danger. The fire was under control at midnight.

GERMAN SENSATION.

COUNT SHOTS WIFE AND NEPHEW.

London, Received December 21.
Reuter's correspondent at Posen reports that at Castle Dakowsko, near Gnetz, Count Mielzynski, a member of the Reichstag, hearing a noise in the night, thought that burglars had entered the castle. He secured a gun and went downstairs, and finding the Countess and his nephew in the former's bedroom, he shot them both dead. The Count then reported the affair to the Public Prosecutor and demanded an investigation.

London, Received December 22.
Reuter's correspondent at Posen states that it appears that the nephew was staying with Count and Countess Mielzynski. The Count had been suspicious for some time of the relations between his wife and his nephew, who was the son of her half-sister.

Returning from a party at four o'clock in the morning, he noticed that his wife's room was lit up, and hearing a noise there he went in to investigate, taking a sporting gun with him, and found the couple together.

U. S. CURRENCY.

THE NEW BILL.

London, Received December 21.
The U. S. Senate has passed a Currency Bill very similar to that introduced in June, but with amendments designed to prevent the undue inflation of the currency predicted by Senator Lodge, Senator Root, and other prominent Republicans. The Bill provides for the increase of the gold reserve on which the currency is based, and also for a graduated tax on the issue of notes.

A Conference of the two Houses on the Bill follows.

GOVERNMENT SUCCESSFUL.

London, Received December 21.
Reuter's Sydney correspondent says that out of the five outstanding elections, the Labour party won two, the Liberals two and the Independents one. The Labour party have therefore an absolute majority of ten.

The Government's success is largely due to Premier Holman's personality and energy. It is estimated that he travelled over two thousand miles and addressed over 700 electors.

FOOTBALL.

Club Lose to Tamar by a Goal.

In the first division of the Football League the Hongkong Football Club on Saturday played H. M. S. Tamar on the Naval Ground and lost the fixture by the only goal scored.

Something in the nature of bad luck dogged the Club's movements, for following a smart run for the naval goal the Club were beaten back to their defence and and Frost, Smith and Nichols putting in some good work, made Cope attempt to save. He was however just a little later than Brown with his foot and the latter with a good, lusty kick put the ball into the net and scored the only goal of the match. The Club were not without opportunities to score but a lamentable weakness in front of goal again showed itself, and robbed them of the fruits of good work that they had put in beating the naval defence. The game concluded with the score already stated.

Teams:—Hongkong:—Cope; Hamilton and Stalker; Long Rigden and Brown; N. Railton, Briggs, Edgcombe, Goldenberg and Wilkie.

H. M. S. Tamar:—Holtzman; Clements and McNeice; Ware, Adams and Baird; Jones, Nichols, Rawlings, Frost and Smith.

Referee:—Mr. F. Wright.

Second Division.

In the second division there was one match, between the Boys' Own Club and the Moslem R.O.C. on Saturday. The latter had not their best team out but this to a very great extent was counterbalanced by the fact that the B.O.C. was playing one man short. The Moslems won by three goals which were scored by Jacob, Gasher Khan, and M. Dyer.

R. G. A. and R. E. Reserves.

A draw was the order of the day in the match between the 88th Co. B.G.A. and the R.E. reserves. Keen interest was taken in the game, which was hotly contested, the result being a fair indication of the merits of the two teams.

The development of the hitherto unsolved Balkan questions is not regarded without anxiety here, as it is expected that France opposes the creation of a vital Albanian State because she fears Italian influence.

CHINESE POLITICS.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S PLANS.

[Ostealischer Lloyd Service.]

Peking, Received December 19.
Vice-President Li Yuan-hung declares his intention, by the closest co-operation with the President, to strengthen the authority of the Central Government. To this end, he says, it is most important to do away with the system of provinces and to subdivide the Republic into nine great military districts under the War Office. By this means only can lasting order be safeguarded.

The duties of the Political Committee, he says, are manifold but in no way concerned with legislative power. The question of Parliament is not yet clear as many members have left Peking, but he (the Vice-President) would remain in Peking for good.

Opposition.

Berlin, Received December 20.
It is rumoured that, besides Hsueh Shi-chang, Chao Ping-chun and Tuan Tse-kui are also against doing away with the provincial system. It is therefore probable that Chao Ping-chun will soon be transferred to Szachuan and that Tuan Tse-kui will also keep distant from Peking. At any rate the matter will entail the most serious deliberation of the Political Committee.

Tired of Waiting.

Li Yuan-hung and all the Tsinhs and Civil Governors of the provinces have proposed to the President the immediate dissolution of Parliament and the sending home of the members because though they have sat for seven months they have done nothing.

President Yuan Shih-kai has submitted the memorial to the Political Committee for speedy action.

Vice-President Li Yuan-hung's resignation of the post of Tsinhs of Hupeh has been accepted.

Chow Tse-chi has been appointed Deputy Minister of War.

Chang Hsueh is expected in Peking soon.

Day Press

Foreign Troops in China.
There is nothing to show in the reports emanating from Peking that Russia has any intention of withdrawing her troops from Manchuria or from Mongolia, so that even though she withdrew her troops from Tientsin and Peking, she would still be in a position to quickly concentrate a strong force upon the Capital should the need unfortunately again arise. The Chinese are not likely to lose sight of that fact.
But we hope and believe that foreign life and property in North China will never again be menaced as in the Boxer rising of 1900, and for that reason the Powers may be inclined to sympathetically consider the proposal.
We cannot think, however, that the withdrawal of the foreign garrisons at the present time can be ardently desired by the Chinese Government. Their presence in the country at the present juncture of affairs must exercise a moral influence of incalculable value upon the situation, and if the Powers are willing to keep them there for the present, the Chinese Government, we imagine, will not regard it as an unfriendly act.

South China Morning Post.

The Housing Question.
As the cost of rent, food and clothing increases the difficulty of making ends meet in this Colony becomes more acute. With regard to the housing problem a correspondent last week made the excellent suggestion—not, however, by any means new—that the Government fix rentals on the basis of the actual valuation of properties. He was followed by another writer who seemed to see an easy way out of the difficulty by an all-round raising of salaries.
To alleviate conditions the Government has built accommodation for a considerable proportion of its staff; it has also made roads and shown a praiseworthy disposition to sell land where sites are available. Building syndicates have also been formed and moderately priced accommodation has been obtained by a fortunate few in this way. Still it is painfully evident that the work-a-day householder, who must perforce of circumstances locate within easy reach of his business, is sadly harassed and driven from pillar to post in a perplexing effort to live within his means.

Labour and Capital's Relations.
In this column, the other day,
we pointed out the causes that were contributing to the ever-recurring trouble in the industrial world, and indicated that the attitude both of capital and Labour was too much inclined to be aggressive. The whole idea of the Employers' Defence Union is suggestive of militancy. What is wanted is not so much the control of strikes and the support of employers or free workers when brought face to face with hardships consequent on strikes; the aim rather should be to obviate recourse even to threats or ultimatums. We are passing through a period of grave anxiety in connection with the labour question. New unions are arising every day. Young converts are proverbially full of enthusiasm, and this applies to the newer unions. Eager for the advancement of their cause, and without that patience and judgment which comes with experience they adopt compulsory methods, which while injuring trade and commerce, more seriously harm the unions.
Youth will be served, but we are glad that the older unions are exercising some restraining influence. There is some time to time, threats of sympathetic strikes, but unfortunately, seldom materialize.

Through a motor-omnibus colliding with it, the statue of the late Duke of Cambridge outside the War Office in Whitehall had its side badly scratched and two of the granite pillars at the base dislodged. The omnibus was seriously damaged.

Baby's Gift from the Queen.

The Queen has sent a petticoat, made by herself, to Mrs. Russell, wife of the Rev. C. W. Russell, vicar of All Saints, Totting, for the youngest baby at the mothers' meetings, and it has been presented to the child's mother, Mrs. Jeffrey.

Woman's £90,000 Bequest.

About £90,000 has been left to the Salvation Army by Miss Mary Jane Fowler, of St. Anne's, Croxteth-drive, Liverpool, a prominent worker among the poor in Liverpool and an intimate friend of the late General Booth. Her estate has been valued at £107,018.

Football for Sermons.

The Rev. T. Simpson, of Brecon, speaking at the meeting of the Central Wales Federation of Free Church Council, suggested that ministers should witness a football match on Saturday afternoon. It would, he said, cure their mental disease and perhaps enable them to preach better.

£5,000 Performance.

The King has sent a letter to Mr. Oswald Stoll expressing his pleasure that £5,000 was raised as a result of the "Good Samaritan" performance attended by his Majesty at the London Coliseum on Saturday, October 11, in aid of the funds of the Charing Cross Hospital and the French Hospital in London.

Writer of "Hitchy-koo."

Mr. Lewis F. Muir, who, in collaboration with Mr. L. Wolfe wrote "Hitchy-koo," "Waiting for the Robert E. Lee," "You Did" and other successful ragtime pieces, made his first public appearance on a stage at the London Hippodrome recently. He sang his own songs in a pleasant, unpretentious manner, which brought him on friendly terms with his audience at once.

Legal Defence by Wife.

Mrs. H. E. Stevenson, wife of a Burton-upon-Trent architect, appeared at Burton County Court and asked if she could represent her husband. She was told that it was unusual, but permission was granted, and she called upon her husband's opponent to stand up and put aside his papers. Although she cross-examined him skillfully, she lost her case.

Women Crazy by Solitude.

Opposing the emigration of educated women, Mrs. Leathes, wife of a Toronto professor, declared in a debate at the Women's Constitutional Club, Court-field-gardens, W., that ranch life was so terrible that Canadian girls would not marry a rancher. "There are women brought into our insane asylums of whom the vast majority come from the country districts and have gone insane through solitude."

A Park for Poplar.

The Education and Parks Joint Committees of the London County Council have completed negotiation for the purchase of seventeen acres of land at Cubitt Town, Poplar, formerly known as the Millwall football ground. The committee propose to use three acres of the land as a playing field for the George Green School, East India Dock-road, and to lay out the remaining fourteen acres as a public park for Poplar.

Revival of L.C.C. Tramways.

The tramway-cars of London are reasserting themselves in the race for traffic against the motor-omnibus. Towards the end of September 10,000,000 passengers a week were carried, and the traffic has since been maintained above that high mark. During the eleven weeks ending October 1 the tramways carried 107,531,529 passengers, as compared with 104,403,817 in the corresponding weeks of last year. This record of progress is a striking justification of the policy of cheaper fares.

MANNING THE FLEET.

"Boom" in Recruiting for the Navy.

Inquiries at the various recruiting centres, by the Daily Telegraph, indicate that the Admiralty are experiencing a "boom" in recruiting for the Navy. In the words of one officer, "Boys and men—for both are required for the Fleet as seamen and artificers—are tumbling over each other to enter the Fleet." The result of this movement will be that the present year will, probably, be notable in naval annals, for the fact that a larger number of recruits will have been accepted than in any year since a long service system of voluntary recruiting was introduced, now over half a century ago. This despite the prosperity of trade!

The experience of the past few months has amply confirmed the wisdom of the naval authorities in increasing the pay of the lower deck and in offering promotion to the rank of commissioned officer to the most deserving and promising men. These concessions have served to advertise far and wide the advantages which the Navy offers, since an ordinary boy of good character and average ability may, under the new regulations, look forward to promotion to the rank of lieutenant, with pay ranging from £237 to £237 a year, besides allowances, which may amount to as much as £88 annually, with a pension on retirement of £210 a year. A proportion of these officers may anticipate reaching the higher rank of commander. In other than the seaman branch of the service careers of honour and good emolument are also open.

From Lower Deck to Ward-Room.

The promise which the Navy now offers is indicated by the fact that since October of last year nearly sixty petty officers and warrant officers—all of them entered as ordinary boys—have been selected to qualify as acting masters with a view to being raised to the rank of commissioned officer. When it is added that the average age of these new ward-room officers is only about 28 or 29, the lure of the Navy to boys with a sea instinct can be readily understood. This week eleven officers who have already been given the substantive rank of mate, with pay at the rate of 8s a day and a mess allowance of 2s, have been appointed, after studying at the Royal Naval College, Greenwich, to sea-going ships of the fleet as watch keepers, and from these the Admiralty's list will eventually be fed.

The "boom" in recruiting has created an opportune moment, as the need of the Admiralty for men and boys is more urgent than ever. The result of this active movement to enter the Navy is revealed in a few facts. Four years ago the total number who were accepted were just over 11,000; in subsequent years the numbers have steadily risen, and last year the aggregate was about 18,000. It is anticipated that in the current twelve months the latter figure will be exceeded by at least 2,000.

150,000 Officers and Men.

In the new Navy Estimates provision, it is understood, will be made to increase the numbers borne once more—by no fewer than 4,000, following upon this year's increase of 5,000—and to supply this increase and make good the losses due to age and death the authorities will consequently have to obtain even a larger number of entries than 20,000. There is, fortunately, every confidence that every vacancy will be filled, and filled with recruits of the right type. By the end of March, 1915, therefore, no fewer than 150,000 officers and men will be borne in the Fleet. This is twice as large a personnel as we had twenty years ago.

It is a happy circumstance that the stream of would-be recruits is at present large, but only a proportion of the applications received at the various centres are successful. The officers are able to pick and choose, and nearly half those who desire to join the service are rejected at once for various reasons, and the examining doctors refuse to physical de tests—many of a you slight character—a further 30 per cent. or so of those who come before them.

The recruits are very promising in physique and intelligence. The Navy takes, as a rule, no boy of 15½ years who is under 5ft. in height and who cannot boast of a chest measurement of at least 30½in. Apart from the boys, the Navy needs a large number of young, skilled artificers and Royal Marines, and in meeting these requirements the recruiting officers are also able to insist on a very high standard of physique. Generally the type of boy and man coming forward for the Fleet shows that the country is still producing good recruits, and the system of physical training in the ships at sea introduced several years ago has been found to produce admirable results.

There are two defects at present, and with reference to these committees of inquiry have been appointed by the Admiralty. The first is, the stagnation in promotion to petty and chief petty officer. This is, no doubt, due to the transition stage in which the naval service is at present, owing to the growth of the establishment in the past few years, and the absence of any suitable and equitable scheme for promotion, applied generally at the ports and at sea. This is merely a matter of arrangement and adjustment with a view to securing a more rapid flow upwards at a reasonable age, so as to give the Navy more young and active petty and chief petty officers.

Decline of Seamanship.
A more serious problem is the system of training youths and boys of the seamen class. Since the abolition of the masted training squadron the character of the seamanship of the Navy has deteriorated. Among naval officers there appears to be a widespread opinion in support of this view. The younger seamen, while they are of good physique, reveal quickness at ordinary drills, and are probably, on the average, of even a better character than their predecessors, are not as good sailors. The want of some system of training which can produce the results obtained by service for a short period in the old training brize is admitted by many officers and warrant officers who have had exceptional opportunities of watching the younger men of the Fleet under service conditions.

The question is now being investigated by a strong naval committee, and, while it is impossible that they will suggest the introduction of masts and yards again for training purposes, it is felt generally that some alterations will be recommended. These, however, are temporary troubles, and the broad fact remains that the Navy is experiencing a "boom" in recruiting; that the officers and their staff in London and other cities, and at the ports, are in a position to pick and choose; and that the country is obtaining thoroughly good types of boys, youths, and men for the sea service.

This experience is a gratifying commentary on the frequent criticism heard abroad, to the effect that though we can, and may, build the ships the country is not in a position to man them. The exact contrary is the truth. The Navy is obtaining as many recruits as Parliament votes; they are of a splendid character, physically and intellectually; and the problem of the future is to secure for them sufficient modern ships. As the First Lord suggested in a recent speech on this matter, the nation owes a duty to the Navy, and should provide it with the best men-of-war that science can devise and money can buy, since officers and men risk their all in the service of the country.

DEATH.

LIDDELL.—At Kowloon, on Sunday the 21st instant, to Capt. and Mrs. V. McC. Liddell, a daughter, stillborn.

THE "LITTLE NAVYITES."

Recent telegrams from Home have made it evident that the task of framing the Budget for the coming year is not an altogether easy one. The Chancellor of the Exchequer, obsessed with his new land campaign, is apparently bent on more new-fangled legislation, and we suppose that one upshot of this will be the bringing into existence of another battalion of officials, with a consequent further call on the public purse in the way of meeting their salaries. But this is not the only point to which Ministers have been giving their attention. Mr. Lloyd George will most probably carry the rest of the Cabinet with him in this part of the question. What we are not so sure about, however, is the proximity of members on other matters, especially the question of naval expenditure. Here there are conflicting elements to be reconciled, and it may be taken for granted that it is the stubbornness of certain factors on this issue which has led to the recent series of protracted Cabinet meetings.

The "Little Navy" section of the party is strong numerically, and active, too. That has been shown very clearly of late. Only last week a deputation from this wing of the party waited on the Prime Minister and pressed its views, quite obviously with a view to influencing the Cabinet in its consideration of the Budget proposals. Mr. Asquith is by no means of means a stalwart of the other school, but he is far-sighted enough to realise the dangerous character of the policy of the friends of extreme economy in naval matters, and nothing could have been more discreet, diplomatic and non-committal than his reply to the "peace at any price" individuals. In all the controversies which have been raised on this naval question nothing has been more satisfying than the attitude of Mr. Winston Churchill. His office, surrounded as he is by friends from whom he might well pray to be saved, is anything but a bed of roses. He is the target, not only of the abuse of the more uncharitable and extreme members of the Opposition party, but also of the agitations raised by the parochially-minded men on his own side with whom he has to reckon. Through it all, however, he has persistently maintained the struggle for naval efficiency in distinctly adverse and chilling surroundings.

The trouble is caused by a set of individuals who are in no wise qualified to grapple with the question. They either deal in generalities or concentrate their attack upon outlays that are vital to the nation's existence. They pose as the watchful guardians of the public purse, and they seek to carry out their extreme view of economy by fettering Mr. Churchill and endeavouring ruthlessly to out down the naval programmes. The Pall-Mall Gazette recently summoned up the dangers of their policy as neatly and as forcefully as it could be put. "The economists, in short," said the journal, "have no practical policy that does not strike directly at the business of self-preservation." Before expenditure can be reduced, it must be shown that dangers have diminished. So far from that being the case, the state of foreign politics and the activity of Continental Powers show that, for the present at all events, the tendency must be in the other direction. Any other policy would be impolitic and suicidal.

DAIRY FARM.

Latest Addition to Premises Described.

The addition to the premises of the Dairy Farm Co., at the foot of Glenegly, of further building to fill the blank triangular space that once existed, will be opened in time to deal with the Christmas trade and, while all the up-to-date fittings will not then be in place there will be sufficient there to give customers an idea of the care and forethought which is being shown over the handling of their food. The shop itself looks about the coolest place in Hongkong. The floor is tiled with a choice design, the walls from floor to ceiling are lined with white glazed tiles relieved only by a cool looking green frieze and dado while brass rails, nicely polished, will support the array of joints etc. The counters for the Christmas trade will be only temporary structures but when complete, the apartments will contain black and white counters of marble. The fact that everything is practically white and the care taken over the admission of as much light as possible with proper ventilation go to make this shop one of the best looking in the city.

The basement immediately below will be used as a cold storage where meats of all kinds will be kept on hand. This will enable the Dairy Farm to supply capons all ready for roasting; roasts the housewife will know that when pressed she can secure a capon fit for use in the shortest possible time. The storage will be divided into five separate compartments so that different classes of goods can be kept without affecting each other. These by means of a lift will be supplied to the shop.

Behind the ground floor shop, the old premises will be used for enlarging the dairy and the old butcher's shop will be retained with the installation of an electrically driven sausage machine. Speaking of machinery, it is interesting to note, according to information given to the Hongkong Telegraph, that the new machinery installed will cost more than have the new additions.

The first floor is to be given over to the secretary's office and a large department for the book-keepers and clerks.

The exterior is also worth comment, for in the style it is carried out it seems to be admirably adapted for its particular class of trade. When the old part has been coloured like the new and the scaffolding has been removed, that corner will look more than a credit to a very good head company.

SCHARNHORST BAND CONCERT.

Next Monday the band of S.M.S. Scharnhorst which has appeared in Hongkong on previous occasions, will give a concert at the Theatre Royal. The programme will include selections from "Lohengrin" and "Rheingold" and from Richard Strauss' latest success "Rosenkavalier". Excerpts will also be given from Grieg's ever popular "Peer Gynt" suite.

An interesting feature, and something new to Hongkong, music lovers will be works for two pianos, by Sinding, and St. Saens, to be played by Messrs E. Danenberg and N. Peterkin. It is probable that a local lady vocalist will also give assistance.

ALLEGED ARMED ROBBERY.

A Chinese stood charged with attempted armed robbery at 37, Elgin Street on December 7, before Mr. J. R. Wood at the Police Court, to-day.

Mr. C. A. S. Russ of Messrs. Golding and Russ, prosecuted. Evidence was given by a female occupant that the prisoner threatened her servant with a knife in a cabaret, and when she intervened her servants' cries for help, the defendant hit her over the head. A police whistle was blown and some men, of whom the prisoner was one, ran away.

The case was proceeding as we went to press.

FRENCH CONVENT.

The Annual Prize Distribution.

On Saturday afternoon the annual prize distribution to the students took place at the French Convent, his L.J. Right Reverend D. Pozzoni presiding. There was a very good attendance of parents and friends of the children, and all were charmed by the remarkably clever way in which the following programme was presented:—pianoforte duet, Misses A. Lephatsh and G. Grimault; cantate pour les prix, the pupils; violin solo, phantom melody; Miss V. Cress, accompaniment Prof. F. Gonzales; kindergarten action song, accompanied by Miss C. Miller; pianoforte duet, Misses E. and C. Miller; the fan drill, the Pupils; violin duet, Misses V. Cress and A. Lephatsh; cantate pour les prix, the pupils; the Pupils; pianoforte duet, Misses N. Neves, E. Smith and C. Miller; the music of the birds, chorus, the Pupils; God Save the King.

His Lordship Bishop Pozzoni after presenting the prizes said that after the report they had just heard read very little remained to be said. He wished to address a few words to the parents of those children who had come there that day to hear a few words about the work. He wished to encourage the pupils to continue their studies with assiduity and perseverance. To the parents he would say that the fact of sending their children to that establishment showed that they appreciated the teaching and the education, the sound education, that was given there.

Their one desire evidently was that their daughters should receive an education and a training that would fit them for their duties in after life, and that they, by their good conduct and the accomplishments which they would have acquired whilst at that school, would be a pleasure to others and an honour to their parents. One of the questions most in dispute at the present day was that of education and not without reason, for on the education of young the happiness of nations and communities depended. With regard to that question, some people advanced the view that the education of boys was by far more important than that of girls but to a great extent that was not so as man was not destined to live and work alone. If men were called upon to accomplish great things in their lives it was necessary that they should be educated and aided by women who had a thorough education which would help them to that result.

Education trained the faculties and developed the natural gifts. They could therefore see from that point of view of what importance it was to send their children to school and to send them regularly and to keep them there until they had acquired the knowledge suitable to their situation in life. Their children had every facility at that school to learn all that a well educated girl could be expected to know. Besides the ordinary class-work, they found that music, drawing and needle-work formed important subjects in the curriculum. Another thing that added to their advantages was the opportunity of acquiring the French language, especially the opportunity of conversational French which they had.

He hoped that the attendance, which had been steadily increasing for the past few years, would continue. He was happy to congratulate the teachers on the progress that the school had made. This was due to their united and untiring labours. To encourage the children to continue their studies he would quote a short proverb which said "no gains without pains." Their school days were the most precious days of their lives. In order to work hard, to persevere and to gain the desired results they would have to occupy themselves less with their personal affairs and think more of their duties. They had to remember that the qualities of a good school girl were good service and training, readiness to subject their will to the orders of their superiors, and cheerfulness in carrying out their commands. Their teachers were gratified here on January 10.

to educate them and guide them and if they would give heed to them they could not fail to succeed. He was pleased to hear that several girls in that school had already become good scholars. On behalf of the Rev. Mother Superior and the teachers of that school he had to thank all those who had shown their interest in the school by their kind presence there that day. He wished every success to both the teachers and the scholars in the coming year. He would also take that opportunity to wish them one and all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year (applause).

It is only fair to pay a special tribute to the teachers at the Convent for the remarkable success of the pupils in the musical programme. Many adults were affected by the display of the notes. The recitations, too, were delivered with much elocutionary merit.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDO-CHINA.

Exchange of Compliments on Leaving Hongkong.

The following telegrams were, subsequently to the departure of the Flagship "Montcalm," exchanged by wireless between His Excellency, Monsieur Sarraut, Governor-General of Indo-China and His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government:—
From the Governor-General of Indo-China to the Officer Administering the Government, Hongkong.

"Au moment ou je quitte Hongkong je tiens a vous remercier tres vivement de l'hospitalite cordiale que vous m'avez offerte dans cette admirable cite et a vous dire excellent souvenir que j'emporte de mes relations avec les honorables autorites civiles et militaires du Gouvernement de H. M. Britannique."

Translation.

As I leave Hongkong I extend to you my very sincere thanks for the cordial hospitality which you have afforded me in this admirable city, and for the excellent memory which I shall carry away with me of my relations with the honourable civil and military authorities of His Britannic Majesty's Government.

From the Officer Administering the Government, Hongkong, to Governor-General of Indo-China. "My grateful thanks to Your Excellency for your kind message. Your visit to Hongkong has given great pleasure to all of us and I regret that you had to leave us so soon."

HIS EXCELLENCY.

Sir Henry May Due Here on Christmas Day.

We are requested from Government House to state that a cable has been received from Shanghai to the effect that His Excellency the Governor, Sir Henry May, K.C.M.G., will probably leave there for Hongkong by the C.P. R. liner Empress of Russia, which is due here on Christmas morning at eight o'clock.

Lady May and the Misses May are passengers by the P. and O. steamer Nyanza, which left London on November 29 and is due here on January 10.

CANTON NEWS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Canton, Dec. 10.

Mr. Li Sum-ling's Mission.

Mr. Li Sum-ling Superintendent of the Government Cash Department arrived here some days ago. He has had interviews with the Civil Governor and the Commissioner of Finance with a view to improving the Currency Notes. He left for Hongkong on the 17th instant for the purpose of receiving the sum remitted by the Central Government for the Mint to turn out subsidiary silver coins.

Railway Robbery.

A robbery took place on the morning of the 12th instant at the Ngau Wan station on the San-ning Railway. The robbers armed with guns and revolvers arrived in a steam-launch. The pointsman was first threatened and ordered to stop the trains. The passengers were then relieved of money and goods, and the station was robbed. The value of the stolen money and goods is estimated at over $100,000. A telephone message was sent to the Kung Yik market for help. As it happened, nearly all the soldiers had gone elsewhere to search for fire arms and the half dozen who remained in the camp made no move. The matter has been reported to the Civil Governor and the San-ning District Magistrate.

Another Arrest Reported.

It is stated here that Chan Wai-po, the Chairman of the Wang Yan Speech Society, was arrested in Hongkong. Lin Kun-ying and Li Fong-lan who were shot the other day were members of the society. The Canton Government, it is said, has deputed officers to have the prisoner brought up to Canton for trial.

Five Rebels Shot.

The Governor General has issued two notifications to the effect that the following men have been shot after being found guilty of having been connected with the rebels:—Wong Ming-shing, Lai Yan-tseung, Lam Wok-sing, Lo Kwok-tsing, Tsang Ting-hing.

BOXING.

The Christmas Eve Tournament.

Judging by the booking of seats there is going to be another monster house at the City Hall, on Christmas Eve, when Mr. F. E. Hall will present another very strong boxing programme before the sportsmen of Hongkong. Gossip in the town as far as boxing is concerned is centred round the Kerrison-Wilkinson fight, and many are naturally wondering what will be the outcome of this meeting. Wilkinson proved very fast when he encountered Miles just recently, and he exhibited a nasty right that will require some attention. There is not the slightest doubt that Kerrison has come on at a great pace and it is to be hoped he will show even improved form when he steps into the ring on Christmas Eve. A little more attention to your man "Sky" and less talk is our advice. (Correspondent's pardon, "gentleman Scott" is ready to meet Seaman Alford, and Seaman Alford is ready to meet Scott. This being so, these two clever lads will be given the opportunity to increase their esteem with the public. Alford made a rattling good shape at the V. R. C. some time ago in an exhibition spar, and with a reproduction of that dash and general good nature in mixing things, he will give Scott a battle.

Mr. Dickson of Hongkong and Gifford of Kowloon, the lightweight amateurs, are to meet and this should be a very good fight. Both men are capable, and though, on the book, Dickson has the advantage, we know that Mr. Gifford is not short of pluck. Then we have Pte Smith and Stoker Sullivan, billed to meet. These boys should travel, whilst regarding the Richards-Taylor fight, it is rumoured that the latter is suffering from blood poisoning, and another opponent will be found for Richards.

LOG BOOK.

Risky Work at Sea.

The Hull trawlers Imperial and Chalcedony arrived at that port recently with the news of the saving of the West Hartlepool steamship Oldfield Grange and her crew of 39 by the aid of three Hull trawlers and a gunboat. The Imperial was on her homeward voyage from Iceland when, about 90 miles from Faroe, her attention was attracted by rockets from the disabled steamship, which was out of her course and away from the track of vessels. It appeared that the Oldfield Grange had broken her rudder shaft on the voyage from West Hartlepool to Philadelphia with iron ore. The Imperial, despite terrific seas, launched a boat and got two wire hawsers aboard. The Chalcedony arrived next and got out two boats, but both were broken, though fortunately nobody was drowned. The third Hull trawler, the Euripides, came next, but the Oldfield Grange continued to drive before the wind and sea, and time after time the towing hawsers parted. One of the trawlers also crashed into the steamship, starting rivets, and the trawler began to leak badly. The captain was fearing that she would sink, when the gunboat came up; her captain got a wire hawser aboard, and the anchor chain was attached to it. The gale afterwards moderated, and the Oldfield Grange was towed 85 miles to Faroe, the operation taking exactly a week. Tugs have gone from Liverpool to bring her back.

Yarn Market.

Messrs. Polishwall and Kotwall's report, dated December 10, states:—

We despatched our last report on the 26th ult. per s.s. Assaye, since when our market has undergone no change, and once more we have to report an almost blank fortnight as the previous one.

Should the present deadlock continue much longer, it is to be feared that some of the dealers will experience great difficulty in tidying over their accounts past the Chinese New Year.

On the other hand, the position of the dealers in a most unenviable one, for, while the importers keep pressing them to clear the overdue contracts, they in their turn are unable to bring the same pressure to bear on their buyers, who, for the most part, are in the country and who for weeks past have sent the same discouraging report to Hongkong, namely; that they are unable to move goods forward.

The situation is alike puzzling to importers and dealers, for it is well-known that in all the southern districts stocks of yarn are at a very low ebb, and it is generally thought that it can only be a matter of days before an improvement sets in.

In the meantime, it seems to us that in order to prevent a crisis in the trade, the safest course open to the importers is not to be unduly pressing in regard to the movement of yarn by the dealers.

Total sales amount to about 3,000 bales for the fortnight.

Unsold stocks 42,000 bales.

Sold but un-delivered in the godown and to arrive 37,000 bales.

Arrivals—The Mail Stra. Delta, and Himalaya and extra Str. Karachi Maru from Bombay, and Str. Namsang from Calcutta have brought in 7,935 bales for Hongkong and 4,884 bales for Shanghai. Shipments from Hongkong to Shanghai and coast ports &c. 1,000 bales.

Local Mill—No Sales.

Shanghai.—This market also seems to have quieted down considerably.

Japanese Yarn.—200 bales Seton No. 20 at $167 1/2 and 100 bales Yellow Chosa and 148.

Raw Cotton.—Bengal and Chinese have both declined, but no sales resulted. Stock Bengal 500 bales and Chinese 300 bales. Quotation Bengal at $26 to $29 Chinese at $30 to $33 per picul.
